

Cadet 12 Vortex Mini Rok

Despite securing the Cadet 12 Vortex Mini Rok title at the previous round, James Wharton battled with Fletcher Harris across the weekend for the top step of the final podium of the year. Harris went on to win the final and claim second place in the championship standings. In winning the title, Wharton who finished the round second, was presented with an invitation to compete in the coveted Rok Cup International Final in Italy in October. He will be joined by Harris who also received an invitation as a result of his championship standing.
